

Well the Australia Day celebrations for those in several parts of Australia were put on the back foot due to the bad weather. Fire one day, floods the next. I hope that everyone reading this newsletter has escaped the fires and floods of January (again). If your business has been affected by the recent wild weather contact me (when you can) and I'll help you out in some way with your online operation.

Let's keep it simple this month. I want to show you a resource I use several times a week to make things easier for me personally and my team.

Fiverr.com – put simply it's a job resource site for small tasks that cost $5 to complete.

While it sounds crazy and let's face it there is a lot of less than worthy fiverr jobs on offer, let me outline what I use and get value from. This list is only scratching the surface of what's on offer.

Press release creation / press release editing / social media engagement (get likes on pages / tweets / Google +1's) / graphic art / small video transitions / HTML and CSS fixes for tricky website problems / transposing audio to text / guest posting on other peoples blogs / special link building tasks / custom gifts.

Sure the jobs are small and concise, but we are talking about $5 here. If you have something more complex then make sure to use oDesk.com.

Just like on any job resource site, once you start using it, you will come across vendors that are better than others. I have my list of Fiverr vendors that I reuse over and over again.

I thoroughly recommend you check out fiverr.com and see what's on offer as it relates to your business.

Domain Name Renewal Letter / Invoice Scams

This is an important standing insert in these newsletters.

If you receive any notices that look like invoices for your domain name in the mail, they are not real and are scams.

Why these companies are still allowed to continue with this misleading advertising is amazing. ACCC?

All domain renewals from your registrar will come via email, not normal postal mail.

WARNING: Please make sure that the domain renewal email is coming from the same registrar that you purchased the domain name from. Phishing emails exist for domain name renewals.
